

A Fraternal Organization

Kevin Malone, Chairman
Mississippi State Elks Association
Elks Training Committee

120 Cabin Road, Hattiesburg, MS. 39401
Phone: (601) 583-1643 • Cell: (601) 297-2452

TO: ALL PARTICIPANTS

August 22, 2010

RE: 2010-2011 GRAND LODGE TRAINING PROGRAM

Source references:

(Do not confuse "Reprint" date on Manuals with actual "Revision" dates.)

1. Statutes Annotated – Code 520100 Dated 2009
2. Exalted Rulers, Lodge Officers, Committee Members Manual – Code 510500 – 3/2010
3. Membership Program and Planning Manual – Code 510400 - Revised 8/2001; Reprinted 5/2006
4. Manual for the Secretary of an Elks Lodge – Code 510800 – Revised 1/2009
5. Manual on Protocol – Code 510600 Revised 9/2007
6. Lodge Activities Manual – Code 510300 - Revised 3/1997; Reprinted 5/2006
7. Auditing and Accounting Manual – Code 510100 - Revised 10/2009
8. Guide to the Courts of the Order – Code 520300
9. Ritual Manual – Code 511500 Dark Blue Book, Revised 8/2007

The Elks Training Program offers all Elks the opportunity to increase their knowledge and aid in improving the daily operation their lodges. You will need the references listed above to answer the questions in the exercise. The references should be available in every Lodge. If your Lodge does not have a current copy of any of the above references, you can obtain them from the Office of the Grand Secretary.

Participants can perform the exercise alone or with others. Participants should take their time and read each question carefully. When satisfied with your answer circle whether true (T) or false (F) then list the reference where you found the answers to include the Page Number, Section or Chapter, and Opinion or Decision or Paragraph in the space provided on your answer sheet.

Send completed answer sheets to your State Association Elks Training Chairman, Kevin Malone, no later than March 15, 2011. Those who complete the exercise with 25 questions answered correctly will receive a Grand Exalted Ruler's Special Citation. Should you wish your material returned to you please include a self-addressed stamped postage envelope.

DO NOT SEND YOUR ANSWER SHEETS TO ANY GRAND LODGE COMMITTEEMEN

Fraternally yours,

Kevin Malone, Chairman
Elks Training Committee